

Join Adventure Rabbi's Adventuresship!

Adventure Rabbi is proud to announce the rollout of a new program starting in 2018. We're launching the Adventuresship and are looking for young Jewish leaders to be part of our inaugural year.

The Adventuresship is an entry-level position that offers flexible hours to fit around your busy schedule. You can earn extra money while growing as an educator, impacting the Jewish youth of Boulder, and giving back to the community in a meaningful way. Fellows will be mentored for the duration of their Adventuresship by a small, caring, and supportive staff and will be taught the skills required to be an excellent educator. There are also extra earning opportunities and room for growth in the congregation.

The skills learned in this fellowship will help you be more confident in all future endeavors. You will hone your organizational and people-skills, teaching methodology, and work ethic. Additionally, you will develop specific skills of Hebrew liturgy and Torah chanting that will allow you to access and lead Judaism with a whole new skill set and fresh approach.

If you are interested in being part of this amazing opportunity, please send your resume and cover letter to our Director of Education, Elaine Barenblat at elaine@adventurerabbi.org or by mail to 5353 Manhattan Circle #103 Boulder, CO 80303. Immediate opportunities are available.

In your cover letter, please state your experience with Hebrew tutoring if not obvious in your resume. Please also explain in your own words what you hope to get out of this Fellowship or what you hope this Fellowship will provide you.

You must be available for our Adventuresship training day on February 3, 2018.

Extra Opportunities:

Interested Fellows will have priority when we select staffing for Adventure Rabbi Kids, our alternative religious school. It meets once a month, and while the curriculum is written for you, you can choose to be part of the planning process. You will also receive priority to serve as ambassadors and attend our retreats for free.

Salary:

Adventuresship Fellows are paid hourly, and will earn between $20-$25 per hour depending on experience level. Further earning opportunities are listed in the above section.
